RULES, PROCEDURES, GUIDELINES, FORMS, AND OTHER RELATED RESOURCES

Failure to Meet Requirements for Academic Standing

The standards for academic standing are reviewed at the end of each semester by the Academic Review Committee for undergraduate students and the Graduate Appeals

Committee for graduate students. A student who fails to meet the standards for good academic standing will be placed on one of the following statuses:

Academic Warning: A student who fails to meet the minimum standards for good academic standing will be placed on Academic Warning. The purpose of the warning is to make the student aware that continued performance at or below the standards will lead to academic suspension. A student placed on academic warning shall not carry overload and shall not be eligible to register for study abroad courses.

Academic Suspension: A student who fails to meet the minimum standards at the end of a semester on academic warning will be placed on Academic Suspension. Students placed on Academic Suspension may appeal the action to the appropriate committee. The appeal must include a personal statement by the student explaining the factors that adversely impacted the student's academic performance, a specific academic improvement plan for achieving the minimum standards for academic good standing, and any supporting documentation.

Academic Probation: A student who successfully appeals his/her academic suspension will be placed on Academic Probation. Students placed on Academic Probation will be reviewed individually at the end of each semester by the Academic Review Committee or the Graduate Appeals Committee. A student placed on academic probation shall not carry overload and shall not be eligible for study abroad courses. A student will be removed from academic probation when the minimum standards have been met.

Academic Dismissal: A student will be dismissed from Upper Iowa University if he/she fails to make improvement toward the minimum standards while on Academic Probation. A student placed on Academic Dismissal may appeal the action to the Deans Council. A student may apply to return to the university after a one-year period has elapsed by submitting the Personal Information for Returning Students Form.
