At Upper Iowa University, we don't just support service members—we stand with them.

We are honored to serve those who serve our country by empowering their educational and leadership journeys. Whether at home, deployed abroad, or stationed on land, sea, or in the air, service members and their families have constant access to the flexible, high-quality education they deserve. Wherever duty calls, UIU is there—providing a path to purpose, advancement, and lifelong success. We adapt to your mission, your pace, your family.

At Upper Iowa University, we understand the unique demands of military life—and we rise to meet them. More than 6,000 service members and their families have earned degrees through UIU. Our academic programs and flexible learning options are built to move with you—not against you—whether in a traditional classroom, online, a hybrid setting, or on your own schedule through self-paced learning. Service comes with sacrifice, which is why our military-friendly policies support you every step of the way. At UIU, you'll find more than an education—you'll find a community that understands your journey and champions your success.

DISTANCE LEARNING PROGRAMS

- Academically qualified faculty with extensive field and practitioner experience.
- No on-campus residency requirement.
- Schedule allows students to begin their degree at six entry points during the year.
- Flexible schedule for degree completion
- Maximum transfer of credits; military, ACE, CLEP, DSST, and experiential learning.
- Online, Self-Paced, uiuLive, and uiuFlex class formats allow you to pursue your degree from anywhere.

Wherever you are in the world, service members have access to mail, email, Internet, or fax to begin or continue their education at UIU. We prioritize the success and well-being of those who have served or are currently serving in the military.

“ It was challenging, but my journey at Upper Iowa University—Fort Riley was fantastic! The easy accessibility of online, self-paced, and zoom courses during the pandemic was beneficial in obtaining my degree, especially while being deployed over 6,000 miles away.”

-Brian ('22 Social Science)

“ As a commissioned officer in the Iowa Army National Guard, I'm grateful to have pursued my MBA at Upper Iowa University. Flexible distance learning let me balance military service, family, and academics. Military discounts and tuition assistance made the degree affordable. Supportive faculty, a relevant curriculum, and an easy-to-use online platform made it the ideal choice. I highly recommend Upper Iowa University to military personnel and working professionals—it was one of the best decisions I've ever made.”

NAVIGATE YOUR BENEFITS

Upper Iowa University is here to help you navigate military and veterans benefits, financial aid, scholarships and other payment options. All UIU programs are approved by the Department of Education of the State of Iowa and other states to certify qualifying learners to receive veterans' benefits.

Tuition Assistance – U.S. Armed Forces Tuition Assistance (TA) can pay for up to 100% of tuition for members of the military. Criteria and assistance levels vary by branch.

Navy – Upper Iowa University is a proud participant in the Navy College-Program Afloat College Education(NCPACE). More information is available at uiu.edu/NCPACE.

Air Force – General Education Mobile (GEM)- UIU actively participates in the GEM program to help airmen complete their general education.

Army – UIU through the Army's Continuing Education Degree Program (CEDP) Leadership initiative offers specific degree programs for the US Army Ordnance School.

Air University - Associate to Bachelorette (AU-ABC)- UIU offers ten in demand degree programs as part of the AU-ABC programs. These bachelor degree programs were selected to help Airmen with a complete degree from the Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) to complete their education with maximum transfer of their CCAF credits.
