Effective Date: November 15, 2022

Strategic Priority: SP 1.1 and 1.2

HLC: Criterion 2

Consultations: VPASA, Academic Deans, VPEDF, Director of FA, Regional Directors, Registrar, Faculty (Academic Affairs Committee)

POLICY STATEMENT

Full-time students are expected to maintain a sufficient course load in order to complete a degree in a timely fashion and qualify for financial aid, regardless of instructional modality.

PURPOSE

To identify and classify enrollment status for a given term at Upper Iowa University (UIU).

DEFINITIONS

Credit Hour: an approximate measure of effort/time required for a typical student to achieve the learning outcome of an educational experience.

Course overload: when a student requests to register beyond the normal session or semester course load.

Standard course load:

- Centers and Online: six to eight credits per session
- Fayette: 12-18 credits per semester

POLICY IMPLEMENTATION

To be consistent with guidelines for determining the amount and level of credit awarded to courses and to be in compliance with policies set forth by both the U.S. Department of Education and the Higher Learning Commission, the following applies.

Fayette:

A student will normally enroll for 12-18 credits per semester, which is equivalent to a full-time load. Students desiring to enroll in more than 18 credits per semester must:

1. Meet the minimum GPA requirement. A cumulative minimum GPA of 3.0 is required to enroll in more than 18 credits in a semester.
 - a. A minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 is required to enroll in 12 or more credits per session.
2. Have been a full-time student with UIU during a previous semester; and,
3. Have the permission of the student's Academic Advisor. Students will not be allowed to register for more than 24 credits in a semester.

Academic & Student Affairs

Center and Online:

A student will normally enroll for six to eight credits per session. Students desiring to enroll in more than eight credits per session through Center, Online, and/or Self-Paced Degree Programs must:

1. Meet the minimum GPA requirement. A cumulative minimum GPA of 3.0 is required to enroll in nine-semester credits, and a 3.5 is required to enroll in 12-semester credits per session.
2. Successful completion of a session with six credits; and
3. Have the permission of the student's Academic Advisor. Students will not be allowed to register for more than 12 credits a session.

Exceptions to this are students in the Nursing Program who may take up to nine credits per session.*
